

West Virginia taxpayers spend $10 million annually

managing pet over-population.

TELL YOUR LEGISLATOR TO FUND WV SNAP

www.fohowv.org

Most West Virginians never come into animal shelters.

Nearly half of all dogs and cats
never come out.

TELL YOUR LEGISLATOR TO FUND WV SNAP

www.fohowv.org

One unspayed female cat and her offspring could have up to 307,092 cats in seven years.

TELL YOUR LEGISLATOR TO FUND WV SNAP

www.fohowv.org

www.fohowv.org

One unspayed female cat and her offspring could have up to 307,092 cats in seven years.

TELL YOUR LEGISLATOR TO FUND WV SNAP

www.fohowv.org

West Virginia taxpayers spend $10 million annually managing the pet over-population problem.

TELL YOUR LEGISLATOR TO FUND WV SNAP

Most West Virginians never come into animal shelters. Nearly half of all cats and dogs never come out.

- In West Virginia over 50,000 pets enter our shelters each year.
- West Virginia taxpayers spend $10 million annually managing pet over-population.
- Tell your legislator to help prevent pet over-population by funding the WV Spay Neuter Assistance Program.

TELL YOUR LEGISLATOR TO FUND WV SNAP

www.fohowv.gov